Overview

Collin Mixon joined Paskert Divers Thompson in 2023. He practices in the area of commercial litigation, with concentrations in construction and suretyship law. Prior to joining the firm, Collin started his practice in a complex commercial litigation firm in St. Petersburg before moving to Tampa to work at an intellectual property firm. There, he focused on negotiating intricate intellectual property deals, drafting purchase and sale agreements, and representing his clients in federal court.

In his spare time, Collin enjoys spending time with his wife, Anna, their two greyhounds, Luna and Finnigan, and rooting for the Florida Gators.
