Our Firm

Since we opened in 2002, we have grown into a recognized industry leader in the Southeast. Our reputation for client-centered service and the results we achieve for our clients have allowed us to experience healthy growth in personnel and clients.

About Us

Paskert Divers Thompson is a multi-faceted litigation firm serving its clients throughout the Southeast. Our attorneys provide efficient legal services to its diverse clientele, including Fortune 500 companies, insurers, architectural and engineering firms, contractors, agricultural concerns, governmental entities and many diverse business entities and individuals. Since our inception, the Firm has experienced significant growth due to our reputation for tenacious, but fair, advocacy and a client-centered approach applying the skills of resourceful attorneys with the necessary technologies to provide our clients with the flexibility and responsiveness they demand without sacrificing personal attention to detail. Our long-standing client relationships are the product of our attention to their legal concerns and our commitment to keeping them well-informed and involved.

Simply put, we are committed to providing the highest quality legal representation to our valued clients.

Our attorneys are nationally recognized in business, construction, surety, and fidelity, and we also regularly practice in the areas of administrative law, appellate law, complex commercial litigation, and creditors' rights. In every matter, we are committed to providing innovative, effective, and efficient legal representation.
