

Paskert ²⁰
Divers _{YEARS}
Thompson
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

A Client-Centered Commitment to Excellence

Governmental

We are experienced in representation of governmental interests. Our attorneys have a long history in representing local governmental interests throughout Florida. We have assisted many cities, counties, school districts and other independent governmental districts in their procurement, construction, commercial and regulatory disputes. These disputes include not only those that commonly arise with the public at large, but also include complex intra-governmental relations. Our attorneys have skillfully protected our governmental clients' interests in a wide variety of actions throughout Florida.