Overview

John joined the firm in 2023, initially as a Summer Law Clerk. Upon graduating from law school, he transitioned to a full-time position, where he focuses on complex commercial litigation with a focus on construction, suretyship, and business disputes.

While in law school, John gained valuable experience working at both a local Tallahassee law firm and a prestigious nationwide practice. This diverse background has equipped him with a broad perspective on legal matters and client needs.

John earned his Juris Doctor from Florida State University College of Law, where he distinguished himself academically. His exceptional performance was recognized with Book Awards in Federal Civil Procedure and Securities Regulation.

Outside the office, John embraces an active lifestyle. He enjoys outdoor activities with family and friends, passionately supports the Florida State Seminoles and the Carolina Panthers, and has a keen interest in exploring new culinary experiences.
